 $^{^{1}}$ The Office of Equity and Compliance was not reviewed, because the EARC did not think it had the expertise to review this highly regulated area.

Recommendation: The EARC recommends that the UAF Chancellor leads an evaluation of the overall organizational and management structure of UAF and fully engages with Governance during both the evaluation and decision processes. This evaluation would allow decisions to be made on units that could be combined or eliminated, while continuing to meet the mission of the University. The goal of the evaluation would be to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of the operation of UAF and to find places in which financial resources can be better utilized or reduced.
