

Proposed UAF Policy 04.06.300
Original Adoption: 01-19-2021

Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, Vice Chancellor for Rural, Community and Native Education
Responsible Department/Office: Center for Student Engagement

CAMPUS ASSEMBLY POLICY

1.0 POLICY STATEMENT

The University of Alaska Fairbanks is committed to academic freedom, freedom of speech, petition and assembly. These are fundamental to the democratic process, and fundamental to the academic mission of the university.

UAF makes clear that these freedoms are to be exercised in a manner that protects the rights of all members of the campus community. UAF reserves the right to determine the time, place and manner of assembly or presentation in order to assure the continuation and quality of the educational process, the protection of property, and the health and safety of our campus community.

Student En
expression activities.

2.0 DEFINITIONS

TIME, PLACE AND MANNER:

University of Alaska Fairbanks defines time, place and manner restrictions as limitations on when, where and in what manner expressive rights can be exercised, which are congruent with the right to freedom of expression provided that the limitations are justified without reference to the content of the regulated speech; that they serve a significant governmental interest; and that, in so doing, they leave open ample alternative channels for communication of the information. For all people, including campus - to ensure that freedom of expression and assembly are conducted in an atmosphere that allows others to enjoy those same rights and promotes intellectual discussion and learning.

7.0 REFERENCES RELIED UPON

_____ All canvassing, peddling, or soliciting on university grounds or in university buildings will be subject to university regulation and campus procedures as to time, manner, and place

Policy 01.02.010. Freedom of Speech. A. An environment of free and honest inquiry is essential to the functioning and the mission of the university. The board and the university therefore acknowledge, affirm, and espouse the right of freedom of speech as guaranteed in the Constitutions of the United States and the State of Alaska. The essential purpose of the university is to engage in the pursuit of truth, the advancement of learning and the dissemination of knowledge. To achieve this purpose, all members of the university must be assured of the constitutionally protected right to question, speculate, and comment, as well as the right to criticize the university and General Counsel. CSE will be responsible for training its professional and student staff in their responsibilities with respect to free expression events, and how to handle complaints when they arise.

9.0 NON-

6. Clean Up: Those engaging in free expression activities are expected to remove any associated materials including, but not limited to, signs, flagging, literature, and trash from indoor and outdoor areas at the conclusion of that activity. Any materials left at the conclusion of the activity will be disposed of by the university.

The conclusion of the activity must be documented on the advance registration materials submitted by groups.

7. Nothing in this policy shall guarantee any group or individual exclusive use of university property for free expression activities.

THIS POLICY IS EFFECTIVE AS OF JANUARY 19, 2021. THE POLICY IS APPROVED:

Daniel M. White, Chancellor
University of Alaska Fairbanks

January 19, 2021

Date