

Topographic Template of Denali

The topographic template of Denali shows approximate lines of elevation. The highest point is the star marker on the summit of Denali. The lines are spaced every 500ft in elevation, and each color shows an area within a 1000ft elevation change.