afterwards will have a different perspective on what ECEs can and cannot do for UAF. Eric added that we all need to have a voice in getting a fair assessment system in place.

VI. Report from Joy Morrison on activities of the Faculty Development Office

Joy informed us that she has two copies of her annual report in her office; any committee member interested in learning more about Joy's work last year is welcome to borrow a copy, but one copy needs to stay in her office.

An exciting opportunity this year is the formation of six faculty learning communities created around different topics such as flipped classrooms, blended learning, and communicating across the curriculum. Each learning community has a designated facilitator and will meet throughout the academic year. More information can be found on Joy's homepage.

Joy reported that three vans took new faculty and post-docs to Denali earlier this semester and the weather was glorious. She has just gotten back from meeting with UAS faculty in Juneau, and is
