Annual Review, Pre- and Post-Tenure
Promotion, Tenure Review

and

School of Natural Resources and Agricultural Sciences/Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station Unit Criteria, Standards, and Indices

The following is an adaptation of UAF and Board of Regents (BOR) Unit Criteria for annual review, pre- and post –tenure, promotion and tenure review, specifically developed for use in evaluating faculty in the School of Natural Resources and Agricultural Sciences (SNRAS)/Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station (AFES). Items in boldface letters are those specifically added or emphasized because of their relevance to SNRAS/AFES faculty, and because they are additions and clarifications to UAF regulations.

I. Purview.

The University of Alaska Fairbanks document, “Faculty Appointment and Evaluation Policies”, supplements the Board of Regents (BOR) policies and describes the purpose, conditions, eligibility, and other specifications relating to the evaluation of faculty at the University of Alaska Fairbanks (UAF). Contained herein are regulations and procedures to guide the evaluation processes and to identify the bodies of review appropriate for the university.

The university, through the UAF Faculty Senate, may change or amend these regulations and procedures from time to time and will provide adequate notice in making changes and amendments.

These regulations shall apply to all of the units within the University of Alaska Fairbanks, except in so far as extant collective bargaining agreements apply otherwise.

The Provost is responsible for coordination and implementation of matters relating to procedures stated herein.

CHAPTER II

Initial Appointment of Faculty

A. Criteria for Initial Appointment

Minimum degree, experience and performance requirements are set forth in “UAF Faculty Appointment and Evaluation Policies,” Chapter IV. Exceptions to these requirements for initial placement in academic rank or special academic rank positions shall be submitted to the chancellor or chancellor’s designee for approval prior to a final selection decision.

B. Academic Titles

Academic titles must reflect the discipline in which the faculty are appointed.

C. Process for Appointment of Faculty with Academic Rank

Deans of schools and colleges, and directors when appropriate, in conjunction with the faculty in a unit, shall obs

For purposes of evaluation at UAF, the total contribution to the university and activity in the areas outlined above will be defined by relevant activity and demonstrated competence from the following areas: 1) effectiveness in teaching; 2) achievement in scholarly activity; and 3) effectiveness of service. Evaluations should be consistent with an individual faculty member's job description and workload assignment. This applies to tenured and tenure-track faculty and to non-tenure track faculty such as research faculty.

B. Criteria for Instruction

A central function of the university is instruction of students in formal courses and supervised study. Teaching includes those activities directly related to the formal and informal transmission of appropriate skills and knowledge to students. The nature of instruction will vary for each faculty member, depending upon workload distribution and the particular teaching mission of the unit. Instruction includes actual contact in classroom, correspondence or electronic delivery methods, laboratory or field and preparatory activities, such as preparing for lectures, setting up demonstrations, and preparing for laboratory experiments, as regularly develop new courses, workshops and seminars and use a variety of methods of instructional delivery and instructional design, including web-based materials and distance-delivery teaching.

- f. regularly develop new courses, workshops and seminars and use a variety of methods of instructional delivery and instructional design;
- g. may receive prizes and awards for excellence in teaching;

2. Components of Evaluation

Effectiveness in teaching will be evaluated through information on formal and informal teaching, course and curriculum material, recruiting and advising, training/guiding graduate students, etc., provided by:

- a. systematic student ratings, i.e. student opinion of instruction summary forms, and clientele response for extension of educational materials to constituents outside the University (if available), and at least two of the following:
- b. narrative self-evaluation.
- c. peer/department chair classroom observations.
- d. peer/department chair evaluation of course materials.

C. Criteria for Research, Scholarly, and Creative Activity

Inquiry and originality are central functions of a land grant/sea grant/space grant university and all faculty with a research component in their assignment must remain active as scholars. Consequently, faculty are expected to conduct research or engage in other scholarly or creative pursuits that are appropriate to the mission of their unit, and equally important, results of their work must be disseminated through media appropriate to their discipline. Furthermore, it is important to emphasize the distinction between routine production and creative excellence as evaluated by an individual's peers at the University of Alaska and elsewhere.

Researchers who receive federal and state formula funds (such as Hatch and McIntire-Stennis funds) through the Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station (AFES) have a special mission to conduct research with direct

Associate Professor: must have established a research program that produces original publications in the peer-reviewed or editorial board reviewed, literature, demonstrated record of presentation of research results at professional meetings, submission of research proposals, and acquisition of external research funding.

Professor: demonstrate continued excellent record of presentation of research results at professional meetings, submission of research proposals, and acquisition of external research funding. the research program should have produced high impact, original publications in the professional literature. there should be a record of graduate involvement for faculty in programs that grant graduate degrees.

D. Criteria for Public and University Service and professional service

Public service is intrinsic to the land grant/sea grant/space grant tradition, and is a fundamental part of the university's obligation to the people of its state. In this tradition, faculty providing their professional expertise for the benefit of the university's external constituency, free of charge, is identified as "public service." The tradition of the university itself provides that its faculty assume a collegial obligation for the internal functioning of the institution; such service is identified as "university service."

1. Public Service

Public service is the application of teaching, research, and other scholarly activity and creative activity to constituencies outside the University of Alaska Fairbanks. It includes all activities which extend the faculty member's professional, academic, or leadership competence to these constituencies. It can be instructional, collaborative, or consultative in nature and is related to the faculty member's discipline or other publicly recognized expertise. Public service may be systematic activity that involves planning with clientele and delivery of information on a continuing, programmatic basis. It may also be informal, individual, professional contributions to the community or to one's discipline, or other activities in furtherance of the goals and mission of the university and its units. Such service may occur on a periodic or limited-term basis. Public service includes cooperation with agencies administering natural resource policies, public education, and response to the problems of local industry, agricultural and forestry producers, and the Alaskan public.

Examples include, but are not limited to:

- a. Providing information services to adults and youth.
