

The following was passed at the March 5, 2010, Faculty Senate Meeting #165:

MOTION:

The UAF Faculty Senate moves to amend the Bylaws of the University of Alaska Fairbanks Faculty Senate, Section 1, Article III: Membership, existing subsections B.1 and B.7 (page 13). This amendment addresses inconsistencies in the treatment of research institutes for the purpose of Faculty Senate representation.

EFFECTIVE: Fall 2010

RATIONALE: The current Bylaws make provision for the research institutes in apportionment calculations for Faculty Senate representation, but they do so with the assumption that the research institutes will not qualify for separate representation. Instead, the research institutes are collected into a "conglomerate group," as would be

However, based on 2008-2009 reapportionment calculations, several research institutes at

NOT CHOOSE TO BE REPRESENTED AS A GROUP, THEN EACH UNIT OF A UNIVERSITY, COLLEGE, OR RESEARCH INSTITUTE, SCHOOL, COLLEGE

OR RESEARCH INSTITUTE. [[shall be grouped into the conglomerate computation of item 5. If a unit which would have been grouped in the conglomerate group decides instead that the unit would be better served by joining with another school or college, it may do so upon the mutual agreement of those units.]]